

DAVIS, MAN AND CITIZEN

Intimate View of the West Virginian Now Candidate for Vice-President.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, VA., Aug. 6.—Rev. C. S. Linsamfeller, a prominent Presbyterian minister of this city and until three years ago pastor of the church at Elkins, W. Va., of which Senator Davis is a member, returned here a few days ago from Elkins, where he met Mr. Davis and has some interesting things to say about the democracy's Vice-Presidential candidate. Mr. Davis was met at the station when he returned from St. Louis by the whole population of Elkins, irrespective of party who came to congratulate him, and called for a speech. Mr. Davis was delighted at his reception and, thanking his friends' briefly in a voice full of emotion, said: "It is Sunday and we will stop with this." Bowing while the people cheered, he started on foot towards his home and stepped lightly as he climbed the long hill by the graded drive which leads to his handsome mansion on its summit about half a mile from the station.

There are three palatial residences of three millionaires on three crowning hills overlooking the pretty little city. Mr. Davis' home occupies the center with Senator Elkins's, his son-in-law on the east and Mr. R. C. Kerns's, on the north all within hailing distance of each other. There are few towns as small as Elkins that claim proprietorship in three millionaires.

His Mother His Best Friend.

In the course of the interview Mr. Linsamfeller said:
The Washington Post's assertion that Mr. Davis "rose from the humblest and most obscure environment" is not entirely correct, for his family, though in moderate circumstances, were respectable farmers, who helped to make the State of Maryland what she is today. His mother was an earnest Christian woman, and he has often told me that he felt it there was any good in him, it was due solely to the Christian education he had received from her, and it was this Christian and loyal devotion to her memory that fostered, through all his eventful life, the desire and purpose to erect to her memory some monument. This purpose found embodiment in the Davis Memorial Church, a handsome stone structure, costing not less than $35,000, which he and his brother presented to the Presbyterian congregation of Elkins.

His youngest daughter, Miss Grace Thomas, married Mr. Arthur Lee of Richmond, Va., and they have two children, of which has not, I think, been noted before.
He is one of the best listeners and church-goers I have ever known. When at home he is almost always in his pew, and ever punctual to the minute. Though he is some distance from the church, he would, even attend the night service, always walking, as he never took his horses and carriage out on Sunday. His frequent inquiry of his employees was: Were they in the habit of going to church?

A remarkable trait is his wonderful attention to details. I have heard it said often that there was not a horse on his numerous farms he did not know by name, and have often seen him, as he walked through the railroad shops, exclaiming in reference to the name of the men.

A Good Churchman.

In the church he is most highly respected, and he constantly into her councils, though he has invariably declined to accept the offices unanimously tendered him, owing, I am sure, more to his innate modesty than to any desire to shirk duty. His counsel was always wise, and he was, in many respects, a wise and prudent man.

I never found him when he was not ready to respond to the demands of charitable objects in the most liberal way, and know of many kind deeds never made public.

One of the most forcible speakers I know. His words are few, but always terse and to the point, and uttered with such an earnest conviction of their truth that they are bound to convince. This is why he has always been sought by the leaders in his own State to make at least two or three speeches in the course of a campaign.

Fond of Children.

He is one of the most temperate men, using neither tobacco nor stimulants of any kind; simple in all his habits, and of even temper, to which he attributes his good health and wonderful success.
Though not educated in the schools, and of the rugged type of most self-made men, he is a conversationalist, and in the society of ladies is one of the most agreeable of men.

Like most great men, he is fond of children, and might be seen any evening riding out with a pack of his side of his little granddaughter, Katharine Brown, of whom he is very fond. The children of Mrs. Lee are his greatest delight.
Senator Davis has one sister, who lives in Kyser with her brother, Tom—Mrs. Colonel Buxton.

One benefaction, and, I think, one of his greatest, I have not mentioned, is the "Children's Home," in Charleston, W. Va. He bought the old residence, had it thoroughly equipped, and gave it to the Children's Home Society of the State. He also gives $1,000 per year for the support, and takes the most lively interest in its welfare.

His Great Benefactions.

Mr. Davis's most important benefaction is the founding, in connection with Senator Elkins, his son-in-law, of the Davis and Elkins College. This institution, which is expected to prove a wonderful agent for the promotion of Christian education in the area, growing State for whose development he has done so much, is under the care of the presbytery of Lexington. Already the large and handsome building is erected and is expected to be dedicated and opened for the entrance of students, in the fall. Senator Davis is the president of the board of trustees, and besides his original donation, has given a liberal sum to beautify the grounds, and has handsomely endowed the institution.

Another evidence of enterprise and liberality is the "Davis Memorial Hospital," in the town of Elkins, overlooking the grave of his son, who was lost at sea, and for whom it stands as a living monument, dispensing health and happiness to many sufferers. This hospital is one of the most complete that can be found anywhere, beautifully located and furnished with all the modern appliances, regardless of cost.

To view the work of this great West Virginian one would conclude that his motto must have been: "Whatever is worth doing at all is worth doing well."

T. C. M.

PRINCESS ALICE WAS ROBBED IN PARIS

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, Aug. 6.—Princess Alice, of Monaco, who is stopping at the Hotel Merced, was robbed today of a diamond valued at $12,000, other jewels and a sum of money.

MISS MAMIE ST. JOHN.

of Chilhowie, Va. This young lady will soon become the bride of former Governor Bob Taylor, of Tennessee.

BRANDON CROWDED WITH VISITORS

Many Parties for the Young People During the Week.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BASIC CITY, VA., August 6.—This, the first week in August, has been made gay by the arrival of many guests. Each incoming train brings some one. The hotel is full to overflowing with charming people.

Monday morning Master Dabney Crenshaw gave a coaching party to some of his little friends. The merry crowd left the hotel and enjoyed the beautiful drive around the country for several hours, returning in time for dinner. Those enjoying Master Crenshaw's hospitality were Misses Gem Heck, Anna Taylor, Rosa Mosley and Master Robert Forrell.

One of the loveliest parties the younger set have had was a potato party, given Wednesday night in the ball room by the manager. Large, curious shaped potatoes were selected, and teaspoons on which to carry them. The potatoes were placed in a row at one end of the room and a large basket at the other end. The children were given one minute to put as many potatoes as possible in the basket. Excitement reigned supreme. It was so close that the potatoes were carried in so short a time. After the contest was over it was found that Miss Fannie Crenshaw and Mr. Bernard Meredith had the same number. They tried again, and this time Crenshaw won, having one more potato to her credit than Mr. Meredith.

The prize a beautiful box of candy was presented to her.
Quite a crowd left the Brandon Wednesday to attend the horse show at Charlottesville. Among them were Mr. Lloyd Pettit, accompanied by Mrs. Wirt E. Taylor, Miss Edith Taylor, Miss Nannie Turner, Mr. Carrington Williams and Mr. Bernard Jones.

Miss Fannie Heck, who is enthusiastic over the beautiful mountain scenery here, will be played this evening is looked forward to with much pleasure by the card-loving guests.

Mr. Carroll Montague, who has been the guest of his parents for a week, will leave tomorrow for his home in Richmond.

Mrs. Everett Wadley and family of Richmond, are here for the rest of the summer. Mrs. Wadley makes a charming addition to the delightful crowd assembled here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Brooke Taylor, child and maid of Norfolk, arrived Tuesday and are guests of the Brandon.
Mrs. Dodson, Mr. William Dodson and Miss Lucille Dodson, of Norfolk, arrived Monday. Mrs. Dodson's mother, Mrs. Pettit, accompanied her. Mrs. Wirt E. Taylor, of Richmond, arrived Wednesday and will remain the rest of the season. Miss Katie Taylor is with her mother.

Mrs. W. E. Nicholl, of Chicago, Ill., is stopping at the Brandon.

Mrs. Nicholl has been in Asheville, N. C., for some time, and came here to meet friends from Chicago and Richmond.

Mrs. William H. Warren and son, W. H., Jr., of Chicago, is registered at the Brandon, and will remain some time. Mrs. Warren is a woman of rare grace and charming personality.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Powers paid a short visit to their parents, Mr. and Mrs.

St. James Methodist Church.

The Rev. W. A. Cooper, pastor of St. James M. E. Church, will occupy the pulpit today at both services—11 A. M. and 8 P. M. The sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered at the morning service.

Broadus Memorial Church.

The Rev. R. J. Willingham will preach at the morning service at Broadus Memorial to-day, and the Rev. Allan Freeman will preach there at night.

Dr. Derieux Returns.

Dr. W. T. Derieux has returned to the city and will occupy his pulpit at Venable Street Church to-day at 11 A. M.

Miss Christine Groves, whose picture appears above, is one of Norfolk's most talented musicians and is still studying to perfect herself as a concert pianist. She is also an accomplished elocutionist, who is always heard with pleasure. She is a brunette type of beauty and very handsome and just having graduated, will make her debut next winter. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Groves and is now living at the Princess Anne, Virginia Beach, where she is popular among the younger set.

MISS CHRISTINE GROVES.

Miss Christine Groves, whose picture appears above, is one of Norfolk's most talented musicians and is still studying to perfect herself as a concert pianist. She is also an accomplished elocutionist, who is always heard with pleasure. She is a brunette type of beauty and very handsome and just having graduated, will make her debut next winter. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Groves and is now living at the Princess Anne, Virginia Beach, where she is popular among the younger set.

FELL FROM WINDOW AND WAS KILLED

Suspicion That Former Marshal of Victor Was Murdered.

(By Associated Press.)
DENVER, COL., August 6.—M. W. O'Connell, former marshal of Victor, Colo., came to his death to-night by falling from a fourth-story window in the rear of the Markham Hotel. There is doubt as to whether O'Connell met with an accident, committed suicide or was murdered. The police hold to the suicide theory, but the friends of O'Connell declare that the marshal was murdered. There was no evidence of a struggle.
O'Connell was marshal of Victor at the time of the Victor riot, June 6th, and swore in a number of union men to help him to preserve the peace. For this reason he was removed from office by the Mayor of Victor, and later was charged with participating in the riot. He was only released yesterday on $1,000 bond.

AT CROCKETT SPRINGS.

Congential Party Stopping at This Popular Resort.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CROCKETT SPRINGS, VA., Aug. 6.—Perhaps the out-of-door world was never so beautiful at Crockett as now. The constant rains have so crisply laundered every tree and every blue peak that, bathed in the August sunshine, the air and scenery are enchanting.

The hotel is about full and it would be hard to find a more congenial crowd. So compelling is the romance of this place last summer that we hear of five Crockett girls, who met their fates here a year ago and are now married. Exponents they are of the harmony and prevalent comradeship.

A progressive euchre on the 18th. Mrs. Campbell, of Mississippi, bore off the first prize, a lace handkerchief. Mr. Bernard Thomas, the gentleman's first, a white broom, with holder. Miss Carmot, of Newport News, achieved the booby, a box of Huyler's.

"Tell me a person's fate and I'll sketch for you that person's character." So said a wise student of mankind. We had a sad party the 21st, so now there is no doubt obscuring the real self of any guest.

Mrs. Tatum loves fine china, that we might have guessed without the precious bits she carried.

Mrs. Thomas, from Mobile, (tell it not in Gath) approves of pawnbroker shaves. Her bridge whist prove unlucky. She carried three balls rampant in her hair and was literally strung with jewelry.

Mrs. Page, from Mississippi, declared for Japan, dressed like the "dashing of the gods."

And the range of fads from champagne to pencils, roses to Colonial Dames, yachting to lekens, summer down to ten pins. It was great fun.

Last week the waiters gave an entertainment in the dining room. Stuart, the biggest, blackest, jolliest of them all, has traveled with the Georgia minstrel troupe all over the United States. He is the Frohman, and his practical knowledge of manager's duty has made up a company whose shows would be creditable anywhere.

Horseback riding attracts many who wish to explore the "hazy" of the "wild" beyond those points where feet however willing, can climb. This is not a "pizza" summer, but one thrilled by "the call to the wild." I wonder how much we have to thank Mr. Robert and Mr. London for it.

The great theatrical event of the season thus far, was a farce. In one act, last evening by the Crockett's Theatrical Company, with the Crockett's Orchestra accompanying. "Popping the Question," a suggestive summer theme, was the name of the bright little comedy. Dramatic personnel: Mr. Henry Primrose, H. Dickinson; Miss Duff, Miss Earnwell; Miss Winterblossom, Miss Lead; Ellen Murray, Miss Thomas; Mr. Henry Thornton, Mr. Bunting; Bobbie, the maid, Mrs. Flickinger. It was very cleverly given before a most appreciative audience.

Miss Thomas entertained the company at Lee cottage after the play.

Mrs. Tatum and Miss Martha Trent entertained at their Kaffee Klitch almost every day, thus adding much to the gaily of the place.

Richmond is well represented by Mrs. Price, Mr. Price, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Miss Luke, Misses Lancaster, Misses Dickson, Mrs. George Scholten and Judge and Mrs. Clifton of Manchester.

Judge Goode, of Bedford City, is always the center of an interested crowd. Among recent arrivals I would note: Mr. and Mrs. McCutcheon, New York City; Mr. W. P. Throver, Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. George Wilkes, Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. Baylor, Mobile, Ala.; P. B. Fetzer, Mrs. P. Fetzer, Master Nevin Fetzer, Concord, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Loomis and family, Elmhurst, N. J.; Mrs. Charles Holland, Danville, Va.; Chester Merrill, Washington, D. C.; George Behren, Richmond, Va.; C. T. Bower, Roanoke, Va.; Miss Deake, Lexington, Ky.; Mrs. Samuel Hunt, P. M. Hunt, Cincinnati, O.; R. J. Hamilton, Boston, Mass.; N. T. Campbell, Clarkdale, Miss.

Dr. Witherspoon on Vacation.

The Rev. Dr. Jere Witherspoon, pastor of Grace Street Presbyterian Church, will spend his vacation at the home of August in the State of New York. His pulpit will be filled in his absence by the Rev. Byron Clark, of Maryland.

Miss Florence Davidson, Maid of Honor at the Reunion of Sons of Confederate Veterans.

ried three balls rampant in her hair and was literally strung with jewelry.

Mrs. Page, from Mississippi, declared for Japan, dressed like the "dashing of the gods."

And the range of fads from champagne to pencils, roses to Colonial Dames, yachting to lekens, summer down to ten pins. It was great fun.

Last week the waiters gave an entertainment in the dining room. Stuart, the biggest, blackest, jolliest of them all, has traveled with the Georgia minstrel troupe all over the United States. He is the Frohman, and his practical knowledge of manager's duty has made up a company whose shows would be creditable anywhere.

Horseback riding attracts many who wish to explore the "hazy" of the "wild" beyond those points where feet however willing, can climb. This is not a "pizza" summer, but one thrilled by "the call to the wild." I wonder how much we have to thank Mr. Robert and Mr. London for it.

The great theatrical event of the season thus far, was a farce. In one act, last evening by the Crockett's Theatrical Company, with the Crockett's Orchestra accompanying. "Popping the Question," a suggestive summer theme, was the name of the bright little comedy. Dramatic personnel: Mr. Henry Primrose, H. Dickinson; Miss Duff, Miss Earnwell; Miss Winterblossom, Miss Lead; Ellen Murray, Miss Thomas; Mr. Henry Thornton, Mr. Bunting; Bobbie, the maid, Mrs. Flickinger. It was very cleverly given before a most appreciative audience.

Miss Thomas entertained the company at Lee cottage after the play.

Mrs. Tatum and Miss Martha Trent entertained at their Kaffee Klitch almost every day, thus adding much to the gaily of the place.

Richmond is well represented by Mrs. Price, Mr. Price, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Miss Luke, Misses Lancaster, Misses Dickson, Mrs. George Scholten and Judge and Mrs. Clifton of Manchester.

Judge Goode, of Bedford City, is always the center of an interested crowd. Among recent arrivals I would note: Mr. and Mrs. McCutcheon, New York City; Mr. W. P. Throver, Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. George Wilkes, Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. Baylor, Mobile, Ala.; P. B. Fetzer, Mrs. P. Fetzer, Master Nevin Fetzer, Concord, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Loomis and family, Elmhurst, N. J.; Mrs. Charles Holland, Danville, Va.; Chester Merrill, Washington, D. C.; George Behren, Richmond, Va.; C. T. Bower, Roanoke, Va.; Miss Deake, Lexington, Ky.; Mrs. Samuel Hunt, P. M. Hunt, Cincinnati, O.; R. J. Hamilton, Boston, Mass.; N. T. Campbell, Clarkdale, Miss.

Dr. Witherspoon on Vacation.

The Rev. Dr. Jere Witherspoon, pastor of Grace Street Presbyterian Church, will spend his vacation at the home of August in the State of New York. His pulpit will be filled in his absence by the Rev. Byron Clark, of Maryland.

Miss Florence Davidson, Maid of Honor at the Reunion of Sons of Confederate Veterans.

ried three balls rampant in her hair and was literally strung with jewelry.

Mrs. Page, from Mississippi, declared for Japan, dressed like the "dashing of the gods."

And the range of fads from champagne to pencils, roses to Colonial Dames, yachting to lekens, summer down to ten pins. It was great fun.

MISS LULA LUCK TERRILL, Of Roanoke.

Miss Terrill is one of the few young ladies of Virginia holding a municipal position. She is assistant city clerk and auditor of the city of Roanoke. She is one of the most charming and popular young girls of the Magic City.

VIRGINIANS ON JERSEY COAST

Home People Who Are at Atlantic City for the Season.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., August 6.—There is now a goodly crowd of Virginia visitors down at this resort, and each and all are bent on enjoying themselves to the best of their ability during their stay.

A severe thunder storm passed over the city early in the week, causing considerable damage to the board walk, and the visitors were obliged to stay indoors, owing to the heavy downpour of rain.

Through the activity of Mayor Stoy and the councils of this place, the amusement and concert gardens have to stop all music at 10:30 o'clock, and an injunction has been served in the case, making it compulsory.

At the final sessions of the American Fisheries Association it was decided that the association meet next year at Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. A valuable paper was read by J. E. Gaud of Georgia, on the hatchery at Roanoke River, Va., in which the striped bass have gained notoriety.

Wu Chaohu, son of Mr. Feng Fang, a former minister to the United States, who has been a graduate of the Atlantic City High School, who has been here for two years, after a trip to the World's Fair, at St. Louis, will return home to China.

At the closing sessions of the Jewish chataukus, I. Isenberg, of Wheeling, W. Va., was elected one of the honorary vice-presidents, and Rabbi Harry Levy, of the same city, appointed on the Educational Council.

Mrs. Ida Eckert Lawrence, who gained a reputation as the writer of the ode by direction of President McKinley, on the launching of the battleship Ohio, and the composer of the World's Fair ode, is at present a guest at the Haddon Hall, Joseph Fallon, who was at one time a manager of several hotels in Virginia, and the West, was found dead in bed at Hotel Jackson, during the week.

There has been a matrimonial epidemic at the Wilshire for the past two weeks and not only has there been many young brides and grooms among the guests, but several weddings have taken place at this hostelry.

A few days ago J. C. Thullen, of Norfolk, Va., assisted the life guards in a rescue at the foot of Maryland Avenue.

Mr. Jones in the City.

Hon. Claggett B. Jones, of King and Queen county, was in the city yesterday for a few hours en route from Washington to his home. Mr. Jones was taken to men in Washington, but replied that he had been so busy while in the city that he had not had time to talk politics.

Police Board to Meet.

The Board of Police Commissioners has been called to meet at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening. The purpose of the meeting is to hear charges that have been preferred against two officers. This will probably be the last meeting at which Mayor Taylor will preside.

Dr. Strange at Massanetta.

The Rev. Robert Strange, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, is spending the summer at Massanetta Springs.

Mrs. J. W. Starritt, who was operated on at the Memorial Hospital several weeks ago, has returned to her home at Barton Heights. Mrs. Starritt is improving and expects to be able to leave her room within the next two weeks.

Mrs. M. L. Bartlett, Russell B. Bartlett, Miss Lula Harbette, Mrs. Julia Caravada, Mr. Bernard Smith and Miss Margaret Smith left Thursday for the Jordan cottage at Ocean View, Va., where they will spend their vacation.

Mrs. Eliza Yager, who is quite sick at her home, No. 11 S. Bevelde, is slightly improved.

Mrs. W. L. Goodwyn, of 830 W. Grace, and her sister, Miss Minnie S. Harris, left today for Nottingham county, where they will visit Judge Goodwyn's family until after the next two weeks.

Councilman Harry Huber, whose health has been bad, has returned, with Mrs. Huber, from the mountains much improved.

Mrs. H. F. Waldron and Miss E. J. Vaughan are spending the summer at Goosey Springs. Mrs. Waldron is spending the summer at a pleasant trip to the mountains.

Evangelist Gooter to Preach.

Evangelist C. H. Gooter, a former assistant of Dwight L. Moody, will conduct the services to-day at the Rescue Mission, No. 727 West Cary Street. There will be two services—one at 3:30 P. M., the other at 8 P. M.

Rev. Mr. Culverston to Preach.

The Rev. Gerald Culverston, of Bethany College, W. Va., will occupy the pulpit of the Seventh Street Christian Church for the month of August, during the absence of the pastor, Rev. J. J. Haley.

Concert at Ashland.

A concert will be given at Randolph-Macon College to-morrow evening by a quartette composed of Miss Mabel McBain and Mr. James McBain, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. Bonway, of Ashland; and Mr. Shepherd Webb, of this city, accompanied.

MRS. EDWIN A. ALDERMAN, Wife of the Newly-Elected President of the University of Virginia.

A native of Kansas City, Mo., Mrs. Alderman has spent most of her life since her girlhood in New Orleans. She is a graceful, beautiful and cultured to a degree that makes her a charming representative of the highest type of Southern womanhood. Dr. Alderman has leased "Comyn Hall," one of the most beautiful homes in Charlottesville, where Mrs. Alderman will be warmly welcomed as a delightful addition to society when she and her husband return to the University from their summer outing in the Adirondacks.

MRS. POTTS'S WINNERS.

Her Horses Have Made a Successful Campaign for the Ribbons.

Among those who have entered horses in the various events at the Staunton Horse Show is Mrs. Allan Potts, of this city. Mrs. Potts has several fine riding and driving horses that have been making the tour of the Virginia horse shows and have come home laden with ribbons. The Staunton Dispatch and News prints the following statement as to her entries at the show:

The beautiful brown mare "Brilliant" will attract unusual attention, for she is in every way a ladies' horse, owned, bred, broken and trained by Mrs. Allan Potts. As a colt Brilliant won ribbons in almost every class in which she was shown. This is her first season as a broken horse, yet among her successes are the blue ribbons in the saddle classes at Manassas, a blue in the saddle class at Orange, a red in the harness class at Manassas, a red in the open runabout class at Orange, and also a ribbon in the harness class. The sire of Brilliant is owned by Mrs. Potts. To have bred, broken and trained a horse, which in scarce half a season has made such a record, is a feat that adds to the laurels of even such a horsewoman as Mrs. Potts. Mrs. Potts will ride her hunter, Firelight, in the ladies' hunter classes. Firelight won the open green class at Manassas, and was second in the big hand-dean class. Mrs. Potts also has entries in the class for pairs of hunters and the hunt (pairs).

ANDERSON HIGH GUN.

But "Week End" Shoot Was Not Largely Attended.

Owing to a number of the shooters being out of the city, the shooting at the Deep Run Hunt Club, and the president, Mr. Hechler, in Baltimore, there were but ten to take part in the shoot at the East Gun Club yesterday.

Anderson won the "High Gun Medal," while in the first 25 Mr. E. C. O. "Reliance" the weekly medal, by breaking twenty-three.

The best score in 100 was made by a comparatively new shooter, Mr. Robinson, who seemed to have his shooting jacket on, as he put up the best score of any member this season—93 per cent.

In shooting circles the first question is: "Are you going to the Big Blackstone Shoot to get familiar with the new system of handicapping?" Ten, and perhaps more, go from the local clubs.

This system will be used at the State shoot, which opens for three days on the 6th of September.

Several yesterday with fifty chances were:

J. A. Anderson, 41; Boudar, 42; P. J. Tappen, 43; Robinson, 44; T. E. 45; Smith, 46; G. H. 47; R. C. Brauer, 48; Fitzpatrick, 49; Lawrence, 50.

Extra—Robinson, 41; Fitzpatrick, 42; Smith, 43; Tappen, 44; Lawrence, 45; Boudar, 46; Brauer, 47; Boudar, 20.

Park Concerts This Week.

The park concerts will be resumed this week, and the programme is appended: March, "Criterion," Voelker.

Overture, "Fra Diavolo," Auber. "Carmina," a Pape-Thapsody, Mabel Medley Overture, "The Sleeping Beauty and the Beast"; Intro, "Come out, Dinah, on the Green," "Three Women to Every Man," "A Little Boy in Blue," "Katy Did," "Tell me, Dusky Maiden," "Princess Lullaby," "Topsy, Chatterbox," "A Little Star," from "Tannhauser," (by request), Wagner; baritone solo, by Mr. S. B. Perkins.

Bernardo, Schubert. Bouquet of Andrew Mack's popular songs, containing "The Rose," Mack's Tipperary, "Story of the Rose," Mack's Serenade, "Eyes of Blue," "Little Tommy Murphy," "For Freedom and Ireland," A. Mack.

Waltz, "Dis Hydrophane," Gungl! Gems from "Faust," Goethe. "Timbuctoo," an African Idyl, A. Gelbel. "Star Spangled Banner," and "Dixie."

Monday—Chimborazo Park, 8:30 to 10:30 P. M. Tuesday—Monroe Square, 8:30 to 10:30 P. M. Wednesday—Marshall Square, 8:30 to 10:30 P. M. Thursday—Gamble's Hill, 8:30 to 10:30 P. M. Friday—Jefferson Park, 8:30 to 10:30 P. M. Saturday—Reservoir Park, 8:30 to 7:30 P. M.

An extra concert will be given at the Reservoir Park on Wednesday afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock.

Personals and Briefs.

Dr. William R. Jones has returned to the city.

</